Dear Gov. Perry:

I am deeply troubled that you are using your office as governor of the state of Texas to promote an event this summer that, instead of uniting people of faith in prayer for our nation, will actually sharpen divisions among Americans along religious and political lines. In particular, partnering with the American Family Association (AFA) to organize "The Response: A Call to Prayer for a Nation in Crisis" is insulting to many in this state. That organization’s history of intolerant rhetoric and divisive political positions is so extreme that the Southern Poverty Law Center has identified the AFA as a hate group.

I believe it is wrong for the Governor's Office to pick and choose which faiths will be favored at a public event. Therefore, I call on you to make this gathering open to speakers and attendees of all faiths, as well as welcoming to people of good will who are not affiliated with a faith tradition.

Moreover, I call on you to demonstrate your commitment to religious tolerance by ending the association between your office and the American Family Association.

The Office of Governor should represent ALL Texans and promote a culture of mutual respect for all of our state's diverse religious traditions.

Your endorsement of the Christian religion is a blatant play for votes and a mockery of the U.S. Constitution. Please read the unanimously ratified 1797 Treaty of Tripoli: "As the Government of the United States of America is not, in any sense, founded on the Christian religion..."

What happened to the separation of church and state?
I recently rode a plane to London and next to me was an India Hindu elderly woman and her crippled brother. They had been visiting their son who is a double PhD and college professor in Dallas. In front of them was a Muslim American woman originally from Nigeria with full hijab on her way to visit her daughter and her grandson. In front of me was a 20-something Korean American from California with Korean passport on a business trip. Behind me was a British couple whom I never got the opportunity to speak with. I am a WASP. I have studied and know somethings about Hinduism and Islam. I know that Hindu is the oldest religion in the world. I know that jihad is a word like mensch in the Hebrew faith that means to be a good person. These were good and happy people dedicated to their families, work and life and two of them were Americans. I was very happy that I took the opportunity to speak to each of them. There is SO MUCH goodness in every religion, in every culture. It would be WISE for us to learn from one another and to include one another. There IS only one God and it (he/she) is not a separatist. Neither should we be.

Rick Perry will use any group or pathway to promote his self. I used to say he is a Bush clone but I'm wrong he's much worse than Bush. The man has no scruples, he will step on anyone or use anyone to move his agenda, like most other teabags he lies about anything to get what he wants. Courting the Religious Right in the United States is no different than courting the Taliban in Afghanistan. Please stop exploiting religion for political purposes; the commandment "Thou shalt not take the Name of the LORD thy God in vain" is STILL in the Bible (twice, even!), and people of faith are aware that "The Response" is an organized violation of that commandment.

What you are doing is so offensive and exclusive. You are telling Texans that if they are not affiliated with your religion they are not worthy of your time and their opinions don't matter. It is exactly that attitude that made me decide I don't want to have anything to do with "Christians" like you. The Christian God I know would condone treating people the way you do. Using tax payer dollars for this event is unconstitutional. This is one of the most discriminatory acts Rick Perry has embarked on and it is not only unfair to the taxpayer, but also to those who are not Christians. Need I remind you Rick, that at least 15% of the country falls under secularism which is made up of Atheists, Agnostics, Theists and other groups. You are also discriminating against smaller groups like the Jewish and Muslim communities. I for one want this event cancelled. If you do not, I will be there to protest outside the Reliant Stadium. I will make sure to be a participant in an ongoing battle to end your political career... Although you are doing a great job of it yourself already.

Shame on you, Mr. Perry. Whatever you choose to do in the privacy of your own home, on your own time...that is your business. However, when you are representing all Texans and it is on the taxpayers' time, then you have a professional, moral and ethical responsibility to behave with honor. Clearly Mr. Perry is dangerously blurring the lines between church and state. To involve the church in political affairs is tantamount to instituting religious law, which is no different than Muslims instituting their religious law into government. Neither is a good form of government - No religion is. Mr. Perry is attempting to usurp the people's will by letting the dictate of religion govern instead of the minds of thinking people. Your religion is fine. I don't care what you worship as long as I don't have to and I am not personally effected by it.

Gov. Perry, It is obvious to anyone who is capable of understanding, that many politicians like you, use faith as a political tool. Using your own faith that way is up to you. But to use others faith, while allowing them to believe you have a genuine interest in our well being is misleading and wrong. Not to mention the fact that you exclude those that do not prescribe to your belief system. Our state is made up of more spiritual beliefs than just what gets you elected. The old saying is "God helps those who help themselves". The governor is behaving like a Mullah in a Taliban society and wants Gog to hold his hand and do the things for him. In reality, in this case, the misguided person like Mr. Perry will do the wrong thing any way and tell us it was God's will.

As Governor of OUR great state, I expect you to visibly demonstrate your commitment to religious tolerance. You should represent ALL Texans and promote mutual respect for all our state's diverse religious traditions. Anything less that that is unacceptable.

If we are going to allow Texans to practice their Christian philosophies & practices at public events (prayers at football games, etc), then we must show the same respect for other religions and faiths and allow them the same opportunity to display their faith in public. If we are not, then the limitations should apply to all religions - not just those we happen to disagree with.

Which denomination would be the best to attend? Baptist? Methodist? Are Catholics alright? Only one interpretation can be right. I hope you chose the right denomination, because your odds are not good. What about Mormons? Do they count as Christians? Do you need papers confirming you are Christian? If I see someone who I don't think is a Christian, can I ask them to leave? If I attend and say a prayer to another God do you fear it will weaken the power of the Christian prayers? How about you just keep religion out of the issue and try to get everyone together through discourse and debate.

Prevention of bigotry lies not only in written prohibitions but behavior. While we cannot prevent hate groups like the KKK from meeting, I would hope the elected leader of our state would not promote such attitudes. I do not mean to compare the August 6 group to the KKK but extreme comparisons help make the point. While you may not recognize August 6th meeting as intolerant and exclusionary gathering, people who do not fit the profile of the attendees do. It is wrong to ignore the intolerance such meetings fosters. I hope you will find a reason not to attend.

Religion has no place in government, but that's not the problem here. Rick Perry is showing the world how he would deal on a national and international level with any group he does not respect. We all know what kind of a leader he would be.

Sir, As a member of the military I’ve been taught to give proper respect not only to my military superiors, but to our civilian leadership; our elected officials. Please reciprocate that respect by not alienating the people of Texas who belong to religions other than Christianity, or to no religion at all. Very respectfully, Alexis Vigo, SPC 470th MI BDE Ft Sam Houston, TX
Texans and Americans alike should be valued equally no matter what their Race, Culture, Political or Religious views. It is unconstitutional to discriminate based on any of these factors, yet that seems to be the intent of the American Family Association. Do you govern for all Texans or just the ones who share your beliefs? Please remember that your job is to support All The People. Thank you.

Mr. Perry, do you realize that you have placed discrimination on the people of our fine nation. You are discriminating people of your own fine nation. Wow. How can you feel okay about this? Limiting those who attend a political event based on religious preference?! That is horrible. How is that any different than saying only white, only men, only blondes, only those you like rock music, only vegans, only Democrats? You CANNOT in this free nation state that only a specific group be allowed at a POLITICAL event. It's politics about our nation thus you cannot discriminate. Wow. I am completely shocked.

For a political party that is not shy to let anyone know that their allegiance is with conservative christian groups, it would seem common sense that the Republican party and Rick Perry would want to do as 'Jesus did' and support the less fortunate. Instead the party views the less fortunate such as the elderly and mentally ill as being lazy and only a burden on our economy. They value money over education and health care. They give bigger and bigger tax breaks to the rich, yet they claim to practice religious values. Religious people are taught not to question so they will never see this hypocrisy. Religious groups are being guided by money hungry people and will never realize it. WWJD. I finally realized and that is why I am no longer a republican.

Religious preferences have no place in legislative activities - they are important private and personal convictions and based on personal and cultural belief systems. Gov. Perry's faith-based leadership is myopic, and represents a centuries-long regression to herd mentality. We need progressive, critical thinkers that can see beyond their own myopic beliefs.

Gov. Perry, you have demonstrated for many years that you are a bigot. You continue to partner with a religious organization that attacks other religions. I believe Texas Gov. R. Perry to be among the most dangerous people in modern American politics, sitting, as he is, on his fencepost, waiting for the opportunity to transition the entire nation further toward feudalistic fundamentalism. That a national embarrassment like the Tea Party would find its most ardent and effective supporters in our state is to our insufferable disgrace. Perry must be outed for the socially backward bigot that he is, and his beloved TP must be slapped down and returned to the dungeons of demonology from whence it came.

Ezekiel 16:49-50: "Behold, this was the sin of your sister Sodom: PRIDE, FULLNESS OF BREAD, AND PROSPEROUS EASE was in her and in her daughters; NEITHER DID SHE STRENGTHEN THE HAND OF THE POOR AND NEEDY. THEY WERE HAUGHTY, AND COMMITTED GREAT EVIL BEFORE ME: therefore I took them away as I saw good." There is a message for you, and people like you who mix far-right-wing religion with far-right-wing politics to benefit yourselves and your right-wing base at the expense of the poor and needy. Luke 6:24-26: “But woe to you who are rich! For you have received your consolation. "Woe to you, you who are full now, for you will be hungry. "Woe to you who laugh now, for you will mourn and weep. 'Woe, when men speak well of you, for their fathers did the same thing to the false prophets." Matthew 25:40-46: “The King will answer them, ‘Most certainly I tell you, inasmuch as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me.’ Then he will say also to those on the left hand, ‘Depart from me, you cursed, into the eternal fire which is prepared for the devil and his angels; for I was hungry, and you didn’t give me food to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave me no drink; I was a stranger, and you didn’t take me in; naked, and you didn’t clothe me; sick, and in prison, and you didn’t visit me.’ “Then they will also answer, saying, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and didn’t help you?’ “Then he will answer them, saying, ‘Most certainly I tell you, inasmuch as you didn’t do it to one of the least of these, you didn’t do it to me.’ These will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life.”’ You don't have to take my word for it, since I'm a liberal and a Lutheran — but like it or not, Governor Perry, God is judging your actions and I can say with authority that you are coming up short. You might become President if you want it badly enough - but if you keep this up, you'll become President at the expense of your soul.

Gov. Perry appears not have read Jesus' teachings as recorded in The gospel according St. Matthew 6:5. "and when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the street, that they may be seen of men. Gov. Perry also has forgotten that he is elected to represent all people in Texas and act as a Stateman. His religious preference is not any of our business and it is not the business of the state of Texas. Shame on him for spitting on one of the finest ideals set forth in the forming of this great nation: freedom of religion or from religion for every single individual equally. How pompous of this man to call people together to pray for rain. Does he not trust in Lord God to have His own divine plan in place? I hope that God doesn't respond in terrible anger at Gov Perry using His name and prayer to pander for votes and forsake the State of Texas into desertification!

Your cynical manipulation of far right religion is of the same origins as that which has brought us the super-sized fiscal fiasco now playing out in DC. No good comes from using prayer for sheer political machinations. You are riding a dangerous roller coaster...ride on, and see where the far right (AKA: willing to destroy the country to simply be heard -- that is usually defined as terrorism, I think?) will lead you. And, what will you do when they turn on you when you find that you have to take reasonable stands in order to actually govern? Come on, quite using public parades of a specific religion in a manner similar to the way Palin carried her youngest son on her hip during the campaign. (Hmm...that wee child isn't seen with her very much these days...might that be because he's lost his political value to her?) At any rate, the point is that a whole lot of voters see beyond your blatant manipulation, and using religion in a way that makes me and many others cringe in concern.

Religion has no place in the political arena. Let your faith guide you but leave it in your personal life. That's about as fundamental of a premise as this country has. Religion can be a strong source of guidance and can therefore be misused in the political arena. That's why our founders chose to distinguish governing leadership from religious leadership. Both have their places, but separately. Everyone hears the voice of God in a different way thus giving way to many forms of religion. To declare one right over another is not only unenlightened, but a very dangerous premise for a governmental leader. The Ten Commandments is a great way to lead your life. The Bill of Rights is the way we've chosen as a country to lead our government. And both documents can live in perfect harmony when applied in the appropriate domain.

I'm sure that, since you're trying to appeal to the Tea Party, you really have no values or ethics of your own, and you just care about your own personal gain and ambitions, you will consider this whole petition as merely a compliment, since it confirms the bigoted values of the Republican base. You are such a hypocrite: You claim Texas can handle things better than the federal govt., but we are one of the weakest states in education. And do you really believe we can drill our way out of the energy crisis? Do you really believe there is no such thing as global warming? Or are you willing to appeal to the misguided, myopic Republican base, regardless of consequences to the planet?

Sir - I am a Christian who believes the teachings of Jesus would welcome all to any prayer event. I accompany church workers under death threat in Colombia, people of faith who are protestant, Catholic, spiritual leaders of indigenous groups, etcetera, and my life has been enriched by all. I fear some of the people I accompany would NOT be welcome at your event. Further, I believe you are misusing BOTH your office AND the Christian faith when you affiliate with faith groups who blaspheme God by themselves judging which interpretations of faith are "Christian." Please separate yourself from hate groups. Please stop using a tax-supported office to promote an event that separates people of faith. Please stop using "Christianity" as a sword in a political contest.

There are extremely good reasons for the separation of church and state, your actions are helping to blur the lines, and that is wrong.

This is unconstitutional and ridiculous... Praying didn't make it rain in Texas, why would it solve our country's problems?

Our nation is inclusive -- people of all faiths or no faith are welcome here. This nation is not and never has been a Christian country club.
Dear Gov. Perry: I believe it is wrong for the governor's office to pick and choose which faiths will be favored at a public event. Therefore, I call on you to make The Response on August 6 open to speakers and attendees of all faiths, as well as welcoming to people of goodwill who are not affiliated with a faith tradition. Moreover, I call on you to demonstrate your commitment to religious tolerance by ending the association between your office and the American Family Association. The office of governor should represent ALL Texans and promote a culture of mutual respect for all of our state's diverse religious traditions.

I am a PROUD Unitarian Universalist and Pagan and stress to my children the importance of accepting other people's religious beliefs. It is their choice not ours to what faith they wish to follow. But to never exclude others based on race, religious preference, gender or anything else that doesn't matter. A person's actions truly defines who they are and my kids at the age of 11 & 13 understand this. Why don't many of the adults that work FOR the people???

Contrary to what you think, our founding fathers did not intend for this country to be a Christian country. It is unconstitutional to establish an official religion in this country.

Dear Governor Perry, To choose the public office is to do exactly that: to represent the public and the people in your state. This is not limited to a narrow slice of conservative Christians. If you are inclined to leverage your influence in this way, you should think about devoting your life to a religious cause in an appropriate forum, such as being a priest and not a civil servant. We are not here to serve YOUR cause, you are here to serve OURS. Your motives are transparent, and you have already made decisions as a governor that have kept my wife from being able to teach. I hope your career takes a more suitable direction, where you can't go on pushing ideology and ignoring the needs of the average Texan. Good luck in your posturing to become President -- I hope it ends your career once and for all. Sincerely, Andrew Lalla

If Perry gets elected we will have toll roads across the nation that he will sell to foreign countries. Property tax on 200,000 home runs around 4200.00. He will allow corporate america to pollute our lands. He recently met with Koch brothers. He will cut spending on special needs children and drive our country further into debt. We are broke in Texas and laying off teachers. We also have tort reform here that has done nothing to bring down the cost of health care. So if this sounds good to you vote for Perry. No man shall be compelled to attend, erect or support any place of worship, or to maintain any ministry against his consent. No human authority ought, in any case whatever, to control or interfere with the rights of conscience in matters of religion, and no preference shall ever be given by law to any religious society or mode of worship. 1. Perry is just sustaining radicalism of the church that right wing extremists employ to sustain Satans total control and use of churches for the anti-christ to take over the world. 2. Churches nationwide are used as pulpits for radical right wing extremists to force christian democrats out of their churches labeled as "demons". 3. The Separation of church and state was adopted just for the prevention of such occurrences and practices. 4. Rick Perry believes in praying for better events in the state instead of working for a better state. He prays to end the drought, who does he think brought us the drought?

RICHARD ROMERO
EL PASO, TX

As Governor, you should not be promoting a religious event. As a private citizen, you are free to exercise whatever religion you wish. But in your role as the head of the government of Texas, you have a responsibility not to promote any religion - that's what the anti-establishment clause of the US constitution is all about. There is no freedom of religion for anyone if the government promotes religion. The best way to safeguard freedom of religion is for government to stand apart from religion. Separation of church and state is necessary to protect Christians of all types as well as though who have other religious beliefs.

Oh by the way you need to release the financial records to prove it. Stealing money from the poor to serve your own interest goes against Jesus Christ's teachings. Governor Perry this falls right in line with all the anti-Latino / anti-immigrant bills that you wanted passed during the 2011 legislator. And now this! Sir you are trying to seperate the American people into the same type of groups that Hitler did with his master/supreme race creation! You are promoting conflict between the religious groups and races! You also plan for your group to come out on top of all this! It seems that the only difference between you and Hilter is the country of origin! Stop it before you destroy us, you are only making this country worse, just to get you into a political position of power! There is a better way.

As a public official Gov. Perry should not have preference on religion and should give every religion the right to voice what they need to say Este hombre no merece representar a la gente de los Estados Unidos de America, El nadamas piensa en si mismo y en tener mucho dinero nadamas para su propio beneficio. Pandering to his base and using religion as a weapon just shows that Perry is only doing what he does best. Keep your friends close and their checkbooks closer. Furthermore, how is this event anything that is even remotely Christ like? Jesus spoke to the poor, the rich, the sick, and all manner of people from different cultural and ethnic backgrounds. By using religion to divide people, the whole purpose of Jesus is nullified by hatred, ignorance, and fear. The money for this event should have been used for a public forum about education because the way tuition is going, I have a lot of friends that might not enroll for classes next semester.

I just happen to use it for the good of a person or persons, not for a political agenda. I do my praying in private, the way Jesus taught, and it works every time. But then I'm not running for President either. Your exclusion of speakers of other faith is your way of saying they have no voice in what happens to America and because they do not believe as you say you do, their prayers will not be heard. That is not your judgment call. You are not a prophet and you need to get to that knowledge. But you won't. The American Family Assn. is an evil force against the American heritage and your association with them as a leader of a state and a wannabe leader of the free world is despicable. Keep religion out of politics & public office. Case closed! 1st Amendment is pretty clear about that. I know the American Family Association's view's very well. They are anti-woman, racist, anti-LGBT, "pro-life" (but pro-death is more accurate), anti-Catholic (thanks for insulting my mother & my Polish heritage), anti every other religion under the sun, & most of all anti-atheist/agnostic/freethinker/nonbeliever. Gov. Perry, you should really reconsider the fact that associating with hate groups, especially when you're on the people's clock, is an unwise thing to do. You need to realize not everyone is cookie cutter & has the same beliefs as you. It would be so boring. The beauty of life is it's evolution & diversity. The differences between people can divide us if we choose to be hateful like the American Family Association, or it can bring us together if we rejoice in our differences & love-or try to love-one another & tolerate those differences in order to find the joy & beauty in those around you. Gov. Perry, if you define yourself as a Christian man, surely you must know this. The definition of Christian is literally to be "Christ-like." I am an atheist preaching a message of love & tolerance to a Christian. How does that make you feel, Gov. Perry? You may dismiss me because I don't believe, but I was raised with a high moral standing. It's a Polish thing.

How could anyone take seriously a candidate for president who aligns himself with hate groups (and by not denouncing the hate groups that have endorsed 'the response' you have tacitly supported them). The Response is terrifying to me because it reminds me of the beginnings of the rise to power of the Third Reich. Sir, your actions are an embarrassment to me as a Texan and frightening to me as an American. Show some backbone. Too bad you use religion to polarize people rather than help the poor, the sick, etc. Why not use the money intended for this event and deliver your words through deeds? In our opinion, there should be a clear separation between church and state. A governor sponsoring such an event, at the very least, blurs those lines. We are very active in our church which would indicate prayer is not the issue; however, we question a very public display of prayer. Are you praying to God or simply putting on "a show"? Dear Gov. Perry: You and others like you are the very reason the younger generation of people are turning away from God. You use a false conviction of religion to seek votes, you exploit God to try to prove your evil base of conservatism. If Jesus was to return to earth today the Conservatives would want to crucify him again because they would say he was too Liberal. You and every other conservative I have known of would starve the poor to make the rich richer. Your commitment to the American Family Association. shows where you stand in affiliation with your belief in the Bible This organization is nothing but a hate filled group of people not so different than the cult of Jim Jones. .The office of governor should represent ALL Texans and promote a culture of mutual respect for all of our state's diverse religious traditions.” Over 75 years ago I was born in Texas, but it has become a State I am not at all proud to tell people I am a native of. It is disgusting to use religion to get votes. This country is about everyone being able to worship freely. The government should not call a prayer meeting in only one religion, but in all religions. If you were honest and did your job perhaps prayer would not be necessary to do the things you are supposed to do. Faith is good. But you were given the power to think and rule and govern laws. This is not a matter of prayer, but intelligence, which you are only using to try to get power and votes.

Governor Perry, even some of the founding fathers had some views on Christianity that would wrinkle your shirt...you should look them up sometime. I believe Thomas Jefferson's comments, in particular, should be required reading for most Americans who persist in the false notion that this country was founded on strictly Christian principles. Besides, weren't the early settlers coming here to escape religious persecution (among other reasons)? Why perpetuate the narrow-minded "us vs. them" mentality that runs rampant in this state already? Why give voters another reason not to like you? Why bring more shame upon the beautiful State of Texas? Think carefully, Governor, your public is watching you.

It is not only un-American (if you consider the documented history of our founding father's intentions) and certainly un-Christian... for any of us to further an environment that does not allow for tolerance and diversity of religions and cultures. I am deeply disturbed that Gov. Perry continues to exhibit evidence of bigotry and hate towards those of other faiths and misuse his office to perpetuate his agenda. I pray that he will recognize that his actions are not only divisive in a nation and state that begs for compromise and unity - but they remind me of Hitler and reflect the very mentality that is part of what is killing our country..

What many fail to realize is that a person can be mean spirited and intolerant even under the guise of Christianity. A true and devout Christian leads a life that is an example to others, and shady land deals as reported in a Dallas newspaper and exhorting a Texas Peace Officer to "let you get on down the road" without giving your driver a speeding ticket recorded on camera does not qualify in my book. Until the buzz began about the possibility of a presidential bid in 2012, you were pretty much invisible except when campaigning for governor. Now we are seeing book signings, a religious event, etc. As a voter with average intelligence, it is pretty transparent to me that there is some political posturing going on.

As ordained clergy with a doctorate in theological studies, I firmly believe that the teachings of Jesus reveal a God who loves and respects sincere people of all faiths and rejects intolerance based upon differing convictions. The one thing that we can be absolutely certain of is that in theological issues, we all fall short of a full understanding of his mysteries, thus we must reach out to all in search of a better truth.

Governor Perry, As a holder of public office, your religious affiliations should not play into the decisions that are made on behalf of the citizens of the state of Texas. Exclusion based upon religious belief is not a cornerstone of this country or this great state. "Two people went up to the temple area to pray; one was a Pharisee and the other was a tax collector. The Pharisee took up his position and spoke this prayer to himself, 'O God, I thank you that I am not like the rest of humanity—greedy, dishonest, adulterous—or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week, and I pay tithes on my whole income.' But the tax collector stood off at a distance and would not even raise his eyes to heaven but beat his breast and prayed, 'O God, be merciful to me a sinner.' I tell you, the latter went home justified, not the former; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted." Luke 18:11-14

Gov. Perry, as a voting Texan I am appalled to see you aligned with such a disgraceful and intolerant group. They DO NOT stand for or represent American Family values; hate and bigotry are not what should be defining this country's morals. As a politician it is your job to do what is best for your entire jurisdiction and by supporting this type of group you have proven how little you care about those of us who are governed by your rule. God does not teach hate, so what gives these people the right. Stop your support of hate groups and work for a more wholesome and worthwhile cause. Your actions now dictate your chances of getting the Presidency; scorned voters never forget.

No one can validate any religion, especially when they all come from the same family for the same objective. If mankind is only 5000 years old, then what was going on before the Jews even surfaced on earth. It is only blocking our advancement as humans to submit to one thoery. If prayer alliviates an issue, then why the source afflicted that issue upon the victims. When two people oppose each other and seeks support from the same source, it is nothing but irony and oxymoron. No leader has ever claimed superiority over other people and some were hesitant to remove other creature from the classification of man. signed

When in a leadership position and having to make decisions on behalf of an entire state, keep your personal ideas and beliefs OUT of things. All that matters is what is best for the state and its people. I'm 20, with absolutely no tolerance for a governor with an IQ lower than my own. As if you haven't been in office long enough, I am beyond confident that our state will survive and thrive with a different leader. Especially considering that we currently have on in office that uses popular ideas and low tactics that play off of the older generation to stay in office. It's a matter of time before your run is up. My generation is counting down the days, all 890 members of my high-school classes and all 500 students of my college classes. Also a bit of advice, it wouldn't kill you to live in a realistic sized apartment or home for once. Your arrogance and ego are bigger than your supposed passion and will to do good in the world. That's a dangerous game you're playing and once again, this situation shows how much you truly care. Truth is this generation is sooo beyond you. I'm very proud to say that you could not compete with us in any category if your life depended on it, and that's very obvious to us. Hope this message is very clear. Oh and God Bless all of the "strong willed, kind hearted, individuals who actually have Pure intentions in their heart". That excludes you. It's possible to fool the people but if there is a God, there is NO fooling him. Remember that....you've got quite a bit to answer to, so good luck. You'll need it:

Other example(s): Owning majority stock in a drug company and promoting a drug that will do more harm than good. Taking federal money to save an otherwise bottomed out budget from stupidly spending improperly and at the same time denigrating the president for giving out bailout money for people like him. He is also well-known in Texas as the Texas Toll Road King. He is the male version of Sarah Palin: completely without substance, racist to the core, and just looking out for the business interests of the wealthy who continue to reap record profits by laying off workers and keeping some workers as temps without benefits. there is NO way all Texans can be represented if our spokesman office is playing favorites in any cause. Religious preference is up to every person and is the right of every person, government should not favor one over the other, especially if the government official is a practicing member of any faith. Donations from any group or promises by any group, automatically make representation of all, irrelevent.

Gov. Perry, it disgusts me that you repeatedly favor your brand of Christianity over all other faiths in our diverse state. Even if you do not participate as a public official and make it a state-sponsored event in any way, you have crossed the line too much with this event. Texans did not vote to put a preacher in Austin, yet that is what you do. You tell us to pray for rain, pray for revenue and tax cuts, and pray so that America's soul is not destroyed. Do you not know that prayer only works when you make an effort to make what you pray for true? God does not grant free wishes.

All christians should love each other no matter what denomination we choose to worship. For one we all basically have the same belief but worship differently. When christians fight amongst each other it turns the unbelievers away and many times that's why they don't believe. I think that ppl need to grow up and use that thing we were taught in school RESPECT others. We are all different and worship in diff ways and it don't make one more right then the other.

Using religion for political gain is cynical and outrageous. Show some class governor, keep politics and religion separated. It's un-American to do otherwise.

Better yet, get out of the religion business altogether. You were elected governor, not chief pastor of the state. Let us not use religion as a tool or weapon, but as a private source of strength if we so choose. Isn't that what the Bible says?

I am 79 years old and this is not the America of opportunity and religious freedom that I grew up with. Why do you think we had so many different denominations of Protestant Christianity? It is because, in America people have the right to worship as we please without intolerance and believe that religion should not be used as a political weapon. To do so is to play on the emotions of believers and non-believers. Our country is so divided already and activities like a political prayer day only continues the divisiveness. Joan Bradshaw

I am a registered independent and I have voted for republicans in the past. I don't believe that one religion is better than another and I don't believe that religion has a place in politics. Governor Perry, if you believe that religion has a place in politics, then please move to a country where politics and religion are intertwined. I am well versed in the Christian Bible and as such, I would like to direct your attention to the "Sermon on the Mount" in which Jesus teaches us the proper way to keep God's teachings. Most importantly I think it is imperative that you study Matt. 6:5-7 - 5 “And when you pray, do not be like the hypocrites, for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the street corners to be seen by others. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward in full. 6 But when you pray, go into your room, close the door and pray to your Father, who is unseen. Then your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you. 7 And when you pray, do not keep on babbling like pagans, for they think they will be heard because of their many words. 8 Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him. All faiths are called to pray including Chrisitans. We must pray and turn from our wicked ways. Our country is not about Tea Party, Republicans, Democrats, or Liberals but about people. People who are united under God with liberty and justice for all. One Lord, One Faith, and One Baptism. America where we have freedom of religion and freedom of speech!

I think the only way to keep a nation together is to keep politics separate from religion. Frankly, I think this new ploy on Gov. George W. Bush changed the tax structure in Texas in regard to franchise taxes--and Rick Perry perpetuated it throughout his lackluster tenure as governor--that resulted in a $29B shortfall in the state's budget. How this man can even be considered for national office is beyond me. Instead of fixing the state's tax code to account for growth and ensure the elderly/sick/needy/young are not "kicked to the curb," Perry has presided over a "cut and slash" scenario in Austin. He is an embarrassment to informed Texans!

Please reconsider! I think it sends a message of favoritism towards one particular belief system. Dear Gov. Perry, as a citizen of the USA, Texas, a voter, agnostic and taxpayer I strongly object to your support of and association with the American Family Association. As a prospective presidential candidate, associating with inflammatory and radical groups call into serious question your judgement. and provokes challenges for our women and men in uniform. Further, why do you choose to use religion to divide "we the people"? Why are you thus determined to continue to create political unrest based on "faith" of your particular religious definition? Is this not what is also done by various factions in the Middle East? Why are you choosing to mimic such actions here in the US? How will this help "heal us as a nation"? I just don't get it.

If you want to broaden your knowledge of the Christian Religion, I suggest Constantine's Sword and Jerusalem Jerusalem by the Catholic writer John Cornwell. I was shocked to read that Hitler killed 2/3 of all Jews in Germany and 1/3 of all the Jews living at the time of the Shoah. Even more shocked to learn that Hitler's ratio of 1 to 3 also holds for the entirety of world history from the time of Jesus up to the present day. If you are allying yourself with a narrow and exclusive type of Christianity, I suggest you spend some time learning of the alternatives. I suspect that your mind is closed to any religious faith which is open and not exclusive and seeks to further the idea of valuing and appreciating all human beings. Sincerely yours, Don Stone, an East Texas boy who grew up with all the prejudices of my native Piney Woods and grew out of it due to the excellent education I received at The University of Texas. A letter to Texas Gov Perry and GOP legislature. As I, independent veteran and lifelong Texan, I find it necessary to prepare to leave the state that I love. The state has been taken over by the worst use of demagoguery and outright lies. Virtually every construction and landscaping job in the state is filled with low pay Hispanic laborers, either legal or illegal. I am a Christian and graduated from SMU '77 and '81. Once Bush was elected Governor, and then President, through the use of propaganda, demagoguery and the immoral use of Christianity, I began to worry about the state, and then the nation. Then you followed your buddy's coattails into office, using the same tactics. The rural folks are the ones that are the most duped. You and the GOP have no clear agenda to truly fix the problems of the state, just GOP talking points. I find the situation, irreparable as long as the GOP is in charge. Just idiotic legislation and governance. The outrageous taxes on homes, poorly regulated property appraisal practices and the poor use of tax dollars, will only lead the state into depression. Before leaving the state, I am considering leveling our property, so as to reduce the taxes that we surrendered to the state, county, city and school agencies. Will you and the GOP only be happy when you have driven all educated and non-GOP citizens out of the state with Draconian legislation, while you try to groom your presidential aspirations, again like Bush. Thus leaving the state filled with Hispanic laborers and a GOP upper class. The drug problems in Mexico are spilling on to the Texas streets and things will only get worst under your and GOP direction. I have no problems with the Hispanic or rural population, except for the fact that they are typically less educated and are used, politically. With the ever increasing cost of secondary education and the attack on public schools and teachers, the GOP can almost guarantee a large, under educated working class. While the upper class will continue to live in gated communities, with underclass workers taking care of their homes, country clubs and fill all low paying jobs in the state. There you have it, a Texan who can no longer watch his great state go down in rubble, by ideologues. Constantly pushing old energy technologies, where the GOP buddies live, instead of encouraging new renewable energy use, is just wrong. When the economy trumps humanity... look out. Over the last three years my wife has experienced the medical system to the tune of $1,000,000+, $50,000+ out of pocket, 17 hospital procedures, and more work to be done. With the GOP in Texas and their medical coverage alternatives, I do not know if we would still be standing, financially. I will circulate this letter to as many news and political groups as possible.

Therefore, I call on you to make The Response on August 6 open to speakers and attendees of all faiths, as well as welcoming to people of goodwill who are not affiliated with a faith tradition. Gov. Perry, You have done NOTHING but lie, cheat, and steal from the citizens of this great State, in my opinion. I could not believe you were re-elected on a pile of lies AGAIN! Now I find that the "American 'Family' Association" is in association with the Governors Office??? Our Constitution of this United States GUARANTEES Separation of church (ANY church/religious beliefs) and STATE. Since YOU, the Governor of the State of Texas, called for this gathering called "The Response" you are surely aware that it is UN-constitutional, ESPECIALLY since no other beliefs than right-wing, RADICAL Christians are invited. ALL faiths should be welcomed and all should be welcomed EQUALLY, all should be welcome to ATTEND and all should be welcome to SPEAK. There are many paths to God, Gov. Perry, and those of us who are NOT Radicals will remember this at the next elections when it is time to vote, I promise.

I agree. This should have been a non-denominational gathering of people of ALL faiths to express their means of prayer instead of those of the Christian Religion. Not everyone is a Christian. Though our country was founded on Christianity - It has no place in the affairs of the/a State when it comes to decision making. However, prayer of any type of any religion (not just Christianity) should be acceptable. Governor Perry should stop promoting Christianity.

Dear Gov. Perry: I believe it is wrong for the governor's office to pick and choose which faiths will be favored at a public event. Therefore, I call on you to make The Response on August 6 open to speakers and attendees of all faiths, as well as welcoming to people of goodwill who are not affiliated with a faith tradition. Moreover, I call on you to demonstrate your commitment to religious tolerance by ending the association between your office and the American Family Association. I respect your faith. I, too, am a Christian and believe that Christ expects us to be tolerant of others, including those of different religions. We are a country based on religious freedom. I expect no person to demand that I be of a certain religion and believe that I (and members of my government) should not expect others to do this either. I am very ashamed of an organization that calls itself the “American Family Association” but seems to take bits of information and turns them into controversial issues. (I have spent several hours this afternoon researching some of their alerts and am appalled! I taught my family to tell the truth. Please represent all Texans. Let us be a model for the nation. Since even before the Europeans have arrived, the land we call Texas has always been a land of many peoples, many tribes, and many religious faiths. After European settlers came to Texas, the diversity of people and faith has continued. This diversity has often caused tensions. In the current age, our leaders must begin to find ways to bring the people together. A leader who willingly supports a divisive group and then organizes an event excluding anybody else but people who also support said group is leading us into division, conflict and misunderstanding. We, the people of Texas, are a mixture of many religions and spiritualities. If you cannot accept this, get out of the way of progress!

Our Founding Fathers envisioned religion as personal and spiritual, separate from state and not social nor political. No specific variety of religion was intended to control the political agenda, to set the community's moral tone or to judge who the true believers and valued members of our society actually are. The worldview of some modern Americans would be unrecognizable to both those who fought for and won our freedom and the political leaders who signed the Declaration of Independence in 1776. Enough said!

Last time I looked Texas was a multicultural state, and to exclude those who are not of a specific belief is very exclusionary and divisive. I have found that we focus on what we have in common with those of different beliefs, instead of the differences, everyone, including children become more tolerant. This is essential in our country today. We are a country of immigrants, with a lot of different beliefs, and not until we find those commonalities will we be truly "one country indivisible under God."

God is not restricted to any one faith Rick, you should know that by now if you have any real association with The Creator. He is not Christian. Time to spend as much time studying as you do campaigning, true faith takes time and effort, it is not found in didactic fundamental nor evangelical comic book ministers with feet of clay who toss stones more than they actually show Unconditional Love. America is blessed, yes, and God does not prefer us to any other nation, religion, or race, gender, or sexual preference. I can help you with this, I have spent a lifetime at it........

Dear Mr. Perry, Jesus warned us about those who have to publicly display their faith. You are to go into your closet and pray and not draw attention to yourself. You and the conservative christians (small c intentional) show none of the compassion of Christ so stop using him to promote your political agenda. When you show respect for those less fortunate and protect them over money and business, then we will know you are a Christian by your deeds. Yes, you are just like Muslim extremist in that you take a gentle, giving, humble, loving faith and turn it into a weapon of attack against those you judge to be not as good and righteous as you as if they are less worthy of basic human respect. That is not Christian behaviour nor is it Christ-like. My favorite quote is "I do so like your Christ, I do not like your christians, your christians are so unlike your Christ".... Ghandi Perhaps Mr. Perry, you could start acting and talking like Jesus or stop using His name in your bastardized attempt to attain worldly wealth and fame. Absolutely disgusting. And if you think that you will ever get between me or my daughter and a safe abortion for any reason but particularly if our lives are in danger should there come a time of unintended pregnancy, I will tell you now. HELL NO!!!!!!! Who made you God when you can't even see Him in the face of his children who just might look, think, and practice their faith in a different way than you. Try some humility and humbleness. Spend your dash doing something to help those less fortunate. Or you could cut social services to all of our needy people. You do know many of those on entitlements are blind, deaf, crippled, handicaped in some manner. Talk to you friend Sarah Palin. Trig gets SS for his Downs Syndrome, you and Sarah might remember there are others with children just like him that will have less services and financial help.

FOR GOD'S SAKE, Gov!

Separate your religious views from your political office!

You need to devote your time and energy to HELPING ALL TEXANS, not just your "big dollar donors" nor your so-called "christian faith" blind followers who believe the Statue of Liberty is a "demonic idol." Quit wasting the State of Texas taxpayers' money with your travelling around the country and not telling us how much you have spent on your "security detail." Since you hate the federal government, why don't you give up your salary, health care and pay for your own $10,000 a month mansion to live in?

Given the budget problems in Texas, plus the sad state of education, healthcare, and eldercare in Texas, and the ballooning debt, why should tax dollars be spent on some religious event? I look for complete disclosure on funding for this event including transportation, security, communications, and facility to prove that no government funding was required for this event, and that private funding has reimbursed the state for salaries for you, the Governor, your staff, and all other State workers for an event that you are using solely for political purposes to pander to the fringe.

"When we see religion split into so many thousands of sects, and I may say Christianity itself divided into it's thousands also, who are disputing, anathematizing, and where the laws permit, burning and torturing one another for abstractions which no one of them understand, and which are indeed beyond the comprehension of the human mind, into which of the chambers of this Bedlam would a man wish to thrust himself. The sum of all religion as expressed by it's best preacher, 'fear god and love thy neighbor,' contains no mystery, needs no explanation - but this wont do. It gives no scope to make dupes; priests could not live by it." ..........Letter to George Logan, November 12, 1816, Thomas Jefferson

Gov. Perry, I work for the DoD at a language institute where we have hundreds of students from all over the world. Our school policy/regulations frown upon discussing religious topics because there is such a mix of faiths in the classrooms. In fact, we have trainings on it and it's consider a breach of professional conduct. Remember, sir, that our state is made up of many faiths as well. It is a breach of professional conduct of your office to be advocating certain faiths over others and even more so as a representative of government. Please refrain from this embarrassing public religious advocacy and let's have an intelligent discussion of legitimate issues in my state. Respectfully.

How dare you create a rally for Christian’s only. I am appalled and shocked. As the supposed representative of me - as the governor of Texas - I expect and request that you would only create a rally that was welcoming of all faiths - and those who may not be practicing - but would like to show support in other ways. I am a Buddhist - with Jewish heritage - and was raised Catholic. I do not support this rally - as a Christian only event. This is not a good idea in light of the difficulties that we as a nation are having and that we are experiencing globally around intolerance of religions and cultural diversity. Thank you for listening - I am grateful.

People of Faith are not just Christians. You do a grave disservice to Texas to ignore the Buddhist, Muslim, Jewish, Hindu, Jain, Baha’i, Native American and other faiths. Jesus is not nearly so close-minded as you. But this event doesn't really seem to be about faith, despite the notices about signs and shirts. It appears that it is really about your Presidential Campaign. Shame on you for publicly abusing religion in this way.

We are a nation built on diversity and seperation of Church and State. Your duty and responsibility is to all Texans regardless of religion or non-religion beliefs. What you proclaim to be doing is contradicatory to the teachings of Jesus Christ our Lord and perverts Christianity in his name. Using your position as Govenor to divid the people is wrong. A true Christian would love all the people as does Christ. Thus, your objective is a political manuver and not of authentic Christianity. As a devout Christian, I am especially disappointed to see an attempt to use Christianity in a tone so completely counter to everything Jesus actually stood for and tried to teach us. In Christ there is no east or west, no male or female, no Jew or Greek, no master or slave. I believe Jesus weeps in heaven when he sees people using Christianity to beat down other children of God who happen to make some Christians uncomfortable.
